

AIA/Los Angeles Chapter
2008 Committee Organization Chart

Professional Outreach Committee

The primary goal of committees in this cluster is to share highly specialized technical and business knowledge among members.

Academic Outreach Committee

The primary goal of committees in this cluster is to address the interests and needs of the next generation of emerging architects.

Political Outreach Committee

The primary goal of this cluster of committees is to review and influence government policies and regulations pertaining to issues that impact the built and natural environments.

Design Outreach Committee

The primary goal of this cluster of committees is to promote a better understanding and appreciation of the impact of high quality design.

Chapter Operations

The primary goal of this cluster of committees is to monitor and guide the basic business and leadership functions of the chapter.