

Role: Project Architect

Location: Los Angeles, CA

About Kevin Daly Architects: KDA is a small firm that tackles expansive, rewarding projects across the country with a focus on craft, construction systems, and material research. Our work interweaves innovation in technology and fabrication, sustainability and urbanism, livability and economy. The firm's award-winning portfolio includes environmentally and socially responsive educational, residential, and institutional projects ranging in scale from single-room artist workspaces to campus master planning. The practice has been recognized with over thirty AIA awards, the Rudy Bruner Foundation's Gold Medal for Urban Excellence, and the AIA/ LA's Firm of the Year Award. The practice's body of work has been featured in numerous publications and web sites including The New York Times, The Los Angeles Times, Domus, A + U, Newsweek, Time, Metropolis, Architect, Architectural Record, Fast Company, T Magazine, and Azure.

Responsibilities:

- Produce and oversee technical documentation in Revit that aligns with design intent and complies with all project and code requirements
- Manage internal project teams, mentor junior staff, and collaborate with Principal and project managers
- Coordinate with external consultant teams and communicate directly with clients
- Assist with project management duties related to project scheduling, budget, and staffing

Qualifications

- Minimum of 8-10+ years professional experience
- Highly proficient with Revit
- Licensed or in the process of completing your ARE's
- Professional architecture degree required, B.Arch minimum. M.Arch preferred
- Proven track record of communicating effectively with clients and consultants. Leadership skills are a must.
- Proven experience working on complex projects
- Excellent design sensibility and familiarity with construction techniques
- Familiarity with the culture of an award-winning studio is essential

Salary: DOE

KDA is an equal opportunity employer offering competitive salary and benefits including health, dental, vision, and life insurance, 401k, vacation, and catered lunches.

Please email a résumé, cover letter, and portfolio in PDF form to:
resumes@kevindalvarchitects.com using the subject line “KDA Project Architect”
Please keep portfolios under 5MB.