

Design Arts Teacher

OUR MISSION

At Milken Community School, we think education is more than what you know. Our School, founded on Jewish values, is about who our children can become and how they can help others become who they might be. Because the world our children will create tomorrow is born in the School we build today, our mission is to educate our children so they can surpass us.

POSITION OVERVIEW

The Design Arts Teacher is a full-time teacher and member of the Architecture and Design Institute (A+DI), reporting to the Visual Arts Instructional Leader. The ideal candidate is comfortable working in a highly collaborative environment where value is placed on the skills and passions of the disciplinarian within a larger context of school mission and integrative thinking. Primary responsibilities include: teaching architecture and design classes, which are defined below, serving as a student advisor, and collaborating on school-wide programming as necessary and appropriate.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Monitor progress of each student for mastery of course content, providing intervention or differentiation when necessary and appropriate, and consistent high-quality feedback.
- Ensure relevancy by connecting course content to other academic domains and authentically exploring the relationship between course content, the Milken Community School mission, and the Portrait of the Graduate.
- Utilize collaborative and individual learning opportunities that support student growth.
- Design lessons that are well-sequenced in terms of content and developmental appropriateness, and based on current institutional curriculum.
- Develop learning experiences where inquiry, curiosity, and exploration are valued.
- Create a learning environment where students feel safe and welcome.
- Create an environment that encourages explorations and experiential learning.
- Demonstrate situational adaptability that balances the needs of social teens, the needs of the lesson, and teachable moments.

- Engage with students outside the classroom through office hours, extracurricular activities, clubs, and school-wide programming.
- Evidence of artistic expression and involvement in own artistic development.
- Ability to network and connect with resources in the local region for enrichment opportunities.
- Other duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor's degree or higher in Design or a related field; master's degree preferred.
- Previous teaching experience required; at the high-school level preferred.
- Knowledge of drawing, design, model construction, Adobe, Suites, and Sketch-up.
