

YOST GRUBE HALL ARCHITECTURE

Open Opportunity: Senior Project Designer @ Yost Grube Hall Architecture, Portland, Oregon

Full time, Temporarily Remote & In Office

We are seeking licensed design architects with 8 years+ professional and design experience to join our team as a Project Designer VI. You will be responsible for initiating creative design concepts and leading project design development.

Candidates must:

Be enthusiastic about working collaboratively in teams.

Define program requirements and establish design parameters based on client requirements.

Create and develop overall design concepts, formulate design presentation strategies, and make presentations.

Manage project design processes while leading and directing the work of assistant designers and technical staff.

Manage design team members during design implementation to ensure that clarity and quality of concepts are maintained throughout the design process.

Work within project budgets and schedules and participate in business development, client outreach, and marketing.

QUALIFICATIONS: Bachelor or Master of Architecture degree LICENSURE: 5 Years

SUSTAINABILITY: Experience in evaluating sustainable design solutions, LEED and/or WELL accreditation beneficial.

Salary Range: 70k - $110k Annual

Yost Grube Hall Architecture, Inc. <https://www.ygh.com>

Founded in Portland in 1964, YGH Architecture is a multi-disciplinary practice delivering proven expertise in planning, programming, architecture, and interior design. YGH serves U.S. and international clients, utilizing in-house project management, cost management, value engineering and building information modeling (BIM) capabilities. We believe clients are best served by a unified, collaborative culture that recruits, develops, and empowers talented professionals. Our single office, team-based practice emphasizes continuous learning and project-based research as the foundation for sustained design and service excellence.

careers@ygh.com

Please submit a cover letter, resume, and portfolio by November 24, 2021, to careers@ygh.com Please specify "Sr. Project Designer" in the subject line of your submission.

