Architectural Job Captain

WHA, Inc.
Long Beach, California

WHA office in Long Beach, CA has an opening for an Architectural Job Captain to be working in a full-time position with full benefits. This is a unique opportunity to be a part of a creative environment where you can grow and contribute to a fast-paced, award-winning land planning and architectural design firm.

Key responsibilities:
- Creation of construction drawings - design development and construction document phases
- Provide support to Project Manager(s) and Principal(s)
- Coordinate with Planner, Designer and Project Manager on the technical aspects of the drawings to complete a package

Benefits:
- This position would give a team member experience in the coordination, planning, and preparation of site plans, design drawings, presentation graphics and construction documents
- Ability to earn IDP hours and work with licensed Architect to gain experience and hours towards becoming licensed

Desired skills and experiences:
- Bachelor's Degree in Architecture
- Experience in Mixed-Use Architecture
- Detail oriented with the ability to multi-task
- Strong REVIT skills
- Working knowledge of Adobe Creative Suite and Microsoft Office programs
- Graphic skills, hand sketching, pen and ink rendering is considered a plus

Salary Range:
Based on experience level and years in industry

Firm Profile:
https://www.whainc.com/

ARCHITECTS . PLANNERS . DESIGNERS

Original, relevant designs that work in the real world. Delivered consistently for nearly 40 years. We are WHA, a full-service land planning and architectural design firm with offices in Orange County, Los Angeles, Sacramento, and the Bay Area—and trusted by agencies, builders and developers for the collaborative creation of projects rich in diversity, inventiveness and forward-thinking solutions.

Contact Information:
Jessie Proctor
949-250-0607
humanresources@whainc.com
Please send resume and work samples.