

Global Design. Local Approach.

Project Architects

Valerio Architects is an acclaimed mid size ±45 people Architecture and Interior Design firm, with offices in Los Angeles and New York. Valerio Architects covers a wide range of high profile multinational clients. As a multidisciplinary firm our focus is on hospitality, restaurant and food service, retail, fitness centers, corporate interiors, shell development, and similar projects with an emphasis on complex, high quality, sustainable design solutions. Valerio Architects promotes high quality, thoughtful and innovative design and is looking for candidates that share this commitment and who can bring contribution and technicality to drive design ideas to reality.

We are seeking smart, creative and highly motivated individuals to join our close knit team of professionals in our Los Angeles office. We are looking for candidates interested in a long term position with tremendous growth opportunities..

We are seeking Project Architects (licensed, minimum 8 years experience) for available full time positions.

Project Architect Responsibilities:

- Ability to coordinate projects independently.
- Strong management to oversee and lead project team.
- Supervision of team members.
- Quality interaction with Clients.
- Ability to oversee outside consultants.
- Strong knowledge of building codes.
- Keen eye in reviewing technical standards.
- Strong presentation skills through multiple media options (digital and hand sketching).

Project Architect / Project Manager Requirements:

- 8+ years minimum experience in the field of Architecture.
- Bachelor's Degree or higher in Architecture from an accredited university.
- Licensed.
- Familiarity with latest CAD, graphic and business software.
- Experience with multi-unit retail, restaurant and / or similar hospitality projects preferred.
- Proven ability to oversee and support complex projects.
- Good communication and people skills preferred.

Valerio Architects is interviewing and looks forward to meeting qualified candidates interested in a long term position with excellent opportunity for growth.

Interested candidates should email a cover letter and resume outlining your past work, project history to: careers@valerioinc.com

Valerio Architects offers generous salaries commensurate with experience and benefits including medical, dental and vision vision packages, PTO / Vacation Time, 401K, support for professional development and more.

Candidates with legal U.S. work status only